A NEW JOURNAL AND A CALL FOR PAPERS

Accounting, Business and Financial History is a new journal which will foster interdisciplinary research into the flourishing areas of accounting, business and financial history. This journal is intended to provide an ongoing record and analysis of past developments; to give explanations for present structures and practices; and to create a platform for solving current problems, as well as, predicting possible trends for the future, both nationally and internationally. Particular areas to be covered in the journal are:

- The development of accounting theory, practices and institutions
- The influence of accounting on business decision making
- The interrelationship between accounting practices, financial markets and economic development
- The various environments and social influences on accounting, business and financial developments.

Accounting, Business and Financial History is contributed to and refereed by international academics in a variety of disciplines. Manuscripts representing original investigation using primary and secondary source materials are welcomed by the Editorial Board. Notes for contributors are available from the Editor, John Richard Edwards, Cardiff Business School, University of Wales. Trevor Boyns is the Assistant Editor; also at the same institution. Manuscripts are to be submitted to: John Richard Edwards, Cardiff Business School, University of Wales, College of Cardiff, Aberconway Building, Colum Drive, Cardiff CF1 3EU.

Accounting Historians: Affiliation with the IAAER

The trustees, officers, and key members of The Academy have voted to become an institutional affiliate of the International Association on Accounting Education and Research (IAAER). Affiliation will enable Academy activities to be publicized in COSMOS, the IAAER newsletter and our members will be kept abreast of IAAER activities.

IAAER was established to assist the International Conference that was held in Kyoto in 1987. Membership was drawn from a number of different countries. After the Kyoto conference, it was decided that the Association has a role to play in fostering future international conferences and in providing members with a forum for exchanging information on meetings, seminars, and conferences other than those organized under its own auspices.

Currently, IAAER has scheduled the VII International Conference on Accounting Education for October 8-10, 1992 in Arlington, Virginia at the Marriott Crystal Gateway Hotel. The American Accounting Association is primary sponsor along with the IAAER.
